Gulf Coast Writers provide ideas, support, encouragement, resources, and networking opportunities to fellow writers. Scores of members regularly publish their work. Others matriculate into the ranks of published authors each year. Genres include fiction, nonfiction, play and screenwriting, poetry, commercial media and children's books.

Members and guests glean fresh, valuable insight at each meeting. Guest speakers, workshop presenters and member panels share expertise on a myriad of topics. And we update each other on news, events, outlets and people of interest.

Gulf Coast Writers Association membership includes reciprocal agreements with the Peace River Center for Writers in Punta Gorda and with Pine Island Writers.

Networking continues between meetings by phone, email, special events, critique groups, and the club's well-informed Web Site

Gulf Coast Writers meet at 10:00 a.m. (doors open at 9:30) on the Third Saturday of each month at: Zion Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall

7401 Winkler Road

Ft. Myers, Florida

Directions: 1.6 miles south of Cypress Lake Drive and .02 miles north of Gladiolus Drive (State Highway 865).

Please make out your check to GCWA.
