

KUNIKO YAMAMOTO

STORYTELLING WORKSHOP ON STORY BUILDING

STORYTELLING POWER TOOLS workshop is a Florida Storytelling Association Story U event on what makes a good story for telling and how to create it. This participating workshop will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., February 4, at Covenant Presbyterian Church, Fellowship Hall, in south Fort Myers. Admission is $10 at the door. Please pay with cash.

Produced by the Tamiami Tale Tellers of Fort Myers and led by nationally renowned storyteller Kuniko Yamamoto, this hands on workshop will provide you with tools to build your story with creative expressions and vivid characters via group work, solo work, drawing, writing, and physical movement. Resources include Mind Map by Tony Buzan, memory map, and Montanaro's Mime Spoken techniques. If you have a story you want to work on, bring it. If you have an idea for a story or just want to observe and learn, this workshop is also for you. See Kuniko's website for a detailed description of the workshop, www.KunikoTheater.com.

Kuniko has appeared at Epcot Disney, The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the National Storytelling Festival and at more than 2,000 theaters, schools, colleges, and festivals throughout the country.

Covenant Presbyterian Church is at 2439 McGregor Blvd. in Fort Myers. For more information and to RSVP, call Mary Lou at (239) 267-6480 or email mwfortmyers@aol.com.
