

A STORYTELLING REVIEW AT ALL FAITHS CHURCH

The Tamiami Tale Tellers of Fort Myers will present a storytelling review called “Howard Silverman and His Girls” at All Faiths Church, 2756 McGregor Blvd, on Saturday, October 15, 2011, at 7:00 p.m. The review is a fundraiser for Tamiami Tale Tellers and All Faiths Church and admission is $10. Wine and crackers will be served at intermission. Howard’s girls consist of Marilyn Graham, Lisa Leonhardt, Mary Lou Williams, and Mary Zettel. The stories they will tell will be varied: there will be funny stories, love stories, humorous folk tales and fractured fairy tales. Howard will be the Master of Ceremonies, who will introduce each of his girls and provide a running telephone conversation (a la Bob Newhart) with his 95 year old mother, who always misunderstands him and vice versa.

Howard and his girls are all members of the Tamiami Tale Tellers of Fort Myers, a storytelling guild that was founded over twenty years ago by Bert and Noel MacCarry. The guild meets on the third Thursday of every month from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Grand Court in Fort Myers on College Parkway. The public is welcome, both tellers and listeners. The purpose of the guild is to provide a forum for people who enjoy telling stories and for people who like listening to them. Every year the guild puts on a storytelling performance called Tellabration on the Saturday before Thanksgiving. This year Tellabration 2011 will be held on Saturday, November 19 at 6:30 p.m. at Covenant Presbyterian Church on McGregor Blvd.
