

Great websites to find and verify agents and publishers:

Preditors & Editors: <http://anotherrealm.com/prededitors/pealr.htm> A guide to publishers and publishing services for writers.

Agent Query: <http://www.agentquery.com>: The internet's largest and most current list of literary agents.

Writer's & Artists: <http://www.writersandartists.co.uk/> Insiders Guide to the Media

Writer's Services: <http://www.writersservices.com/index.htm> Website for Writers

Writer Beware: <http://www.sfw.org/for-authors/writer-beware> Check out agent/publishers reputation, info on self publishing, electronic publishing, POD, Small Presses, Truth about literary agent fees, Vanity and Subsidy publishers, copyrights, and much more.

Agent Research & Evaluation: <http://www.agentresearch.com> Empower authors by providing them with extensive information about virtually every active literary and dramatic rights agent in the U.S., Canada and the U.K. Then encourage them to use that data to select the agent who is right for them. If the writer is brand new, the data helps her/him prepare a query that will convince the agent to take a serious look at the writer's work.

A Newbie's Guide To Publishing/ JA Konrath: <http://jakonrath.blogspot.com> A free download 250,000 words worth of tips, hints, tricks, and advice. Over 750 pages long. And it's free

Safest Way To Search For An Agent:

<http://www.sff.net/people/victoriastrauss/agentsearch.html>

LitMatch: <http://www.litmatch.net/#>